Instructions for authors

LCL welcomes contributions from Romanian and foreign authors, as long as they are relevant to the interest area of the journal (linguistics, literature, literary criticism, literary theory, etc).

The articles should be written in either French, English, Italian, Spanish, German or Romanian and sent in electronic format to the Editorial Responsible (see contact section). They will go through a process of assessment and peer-review.

All materials should be submitted in Word 2007/2010 format (doc or docx), using the Times New Roman 12, justified, character set and including a bibliography (with references and sources), as well as a short abstract written in English and 5 key-words. A template will be provided to accepted authors.

Titles: should be synthetic and precise (in order to facilitate indexation) and clearly focused on the content of the article. They will be written in Times New Roman 14, bold, centered.

Abstract: no more than 250 words, resuming the most important approach methods, as well as the conclusions of the article, in correlation with the major known results from the field of research. Bibliographic references and specific abbreviations (especially in the field of Linguistics) should be reduced to a minimum in the abstract. In the case of inevitable bibliographic titles, these should be given in full form.

Key-words: 5 key-words should accompany the article, expressing essential terms and syntagms relevant to the content, type of approach and conclusions of the paper. The preciseness of these terms is also important for a further correct indexation of the article.
